Information on Small-Scale In-House Advisory

ERRA Research Unit

Small-Scale In-House Advisory

EXPERTISE • ADVISORY • REGULATORY SUPPORT

Purpose

- New initiative included in the ERRA 2026 Workplan
- Supports ERRA members in their core regulatory functions
- Provides tailor-made expertise from the ERRA Research Unit

Areas of Expertise

Quality of service regulation | Performance-based regulation | Retail market monitoring | Vulnerable customer protection | Smart metering & e-mobility | Regulatory enforcement | Ancillary services | Network tariffs | Net metering & net billing | Short-term electricity markets | Market Monitoring

Small-Scale In-House Advisory

SERVICE FORMATS

Mini Advisory	Extended Advisory
E-mail or short online consultation	Up to 2 days (online and on-site)
Focused support for specific, temporary regulatory questions	More complex regulatory issues with the aim of analysing problems, introducing new regulatory techniques or improving regulatory performance
Free of charge (online only)	Secretariat expertise free; travel & accommodation covered by requesting member (if on-site)
One request/ month	Subject to availability
	No consultancy report provided

Small-Scale In-House Advisory

ELIGIBILITY

- ✓ Available to ERRA members with paid membership dues
- ✓ Topics must fall within the Research Unit's expertise
- ✓ Applications submitted via the Application Form
- ✓ Requests accepted on a rolling basis

A practical, flexible advisory service designed to strengthen members' regulatory capacity through direct access to ERRA expertise.

ERRA
ENERGY REGULATORS
REGIONAL ASSOCIATION

secretariat@erranet.org

https://erranet.org/