➤ Gas Tariffs regulation

- Gas prices are regulated for all the customer groups (households, electricity producer and industrial)
- Eligible customers (business customer) negotiate their gas price with the supplier.
- Eligible customers are connected to the gas transmission system. They have an access contract with the gas transmission operator and pay him a regulated Transmission Tariff.

➤ Gas Tariff trend (evolution)

- No increase in gas tariffs since 2015 for the households, electricity producers and industrial (not eligible).
- Gas Transmission Tariff was increased in 2015, for eligible customer.
- Wholesale price: electricity producers and gas distributor purchase gas with the same price since 2011.
